$35 OFF ANY ORDER

MaxBotix Inc., our staff and I want to personally congratulate every team for your participation in this year's FIRST® Robotics Competition. We look forward to sharing this exciting time and experience with you. Once again, we are giving a voucher so you can choose which product works best for your team. Be sure to check out our products, including the HRLV-EZ line with incredible noise rejection and 1 mm resolution which you can get with your team's voucher.

Our Facebook page is set up as your hub to access our Product Information, Application Notes and Competition Updates. Shop our products and share your thoughts, experiences, questions or comments on the discussion link.

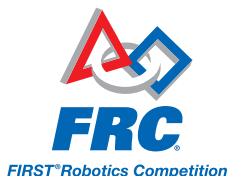

May the best team win!
