- For remote professional development what is a cohort?
  - A cohort is the date and time frame sequence that you are required to choose as an option to attend for remote professional development. All members of the cohort will be the same throughout the series.

- What equipment do I need for remote professional development?
  - Each course requires specific equipment to successfully complete the course. For a complete listing view the course descriptions below or on the website https://www.firstinspires.org/community/educators/professional-development
    - FIRST LEGO League Discover
    - FIRST LEGO League Explore
    - FIRST LEGO League Challenge
    - FIRST Tech Challenge

- What if I cannot attend all sessions in a cohort for the remote PD option?
  - To maintain the integrity of the course and have a cohesive experience attendance at each session in a cohort is mandatory to receive successful completion credit for the course.
  - You are also not allowed to switch between cohorts

- Will there be more sessions for remote professional development than are showing on the website?
  - We will add additional sessions throughout the remainder of 2020 and into 2021, 6 – 8 weeks prior to the start of the courses.

- Will remote professional development prepare me to run a FIRST team or classroom remotely or with hybrid, blended learning environments?
  - Through participation in our professional development you are better prepared to facilitate FIRST programs and it does not specifically address implementations in blended or remote learning environments.
