 - Yes we offer a remote option for professional development. See the website for complete details. <https://www.firstinspires.org/community/educators/professional-development>
- Will the Professional Development courses be cancelled if so, how far in advance will I be notified?
 - If these are cancelled the cancellation policy will apply but we will have alternative options for you to choose from at that time.

- Is there training in my area?
 - To view final FIRST Professional Development sites, please visit the PD website. You can also sign up to receive information about FIRST Professional Development and be notified when new locations or offerings are added, or to inquire about bringing PD to your area. <https://www.firstinspires.org/community/educators/professional-development>
- For remote professional development, what is a cohort?
 - A cohort is the date and time frame sequence that you are required to choose as an option to attend for remote professional development. All members of the cohort will be the same throughout the series.
- What equipment do I need for remote professional development?
 - Each course requires specific equipment to successfully complete the course. For a complete listing view the course descriptions below or on the website. <https://www.firstinspires.org/community/educators/professional-development>
- What if I cannot attend all sessions in a cohort for the remote PD option?
 - To maintain the integrity of the course and have a cohesive experience attendance at each session in a cohort is mandatory to receive successful completion credit for the course
 - You are also not allowed to switch between cohorts.
- Will there be more sessions for remote professional development than are showing on the website?
 - We will add additional sessions approximately 6 – 8 weeks prior to the start of the courses.
- PD Sessions where “we come to you” needs to be quoted, then scheduled. We do not provide robots or other FIRST materials for these sessions. Sites must have appropriate equipment on site.
