

VOLUNTEER ENGAGEMENT AND RECOGNITION

Overview

As part of our global robotics community, FIRST® volunteers build and bolster millions of young people to embrace innovation and collaboration. Our dedicated volunteers are the heart of our programs, and it is our amazing volunteer community that makes FIRST a success. FIRST volunteers share their talents, their passions, and their time to make a difference in the lives of students all over the world. Creating a memorable and high-quality volunteer experience is important to the success of our programs and will help improve volunteer retention and ensure sustainability. Event volunteers, coaches and mentors, and local planning committee members are all FIRST volunteers and are valuable members of the team.

Volunteer Experience Toolkit

The Volunteer Experience Toolkit is a resource created by FIRST headquarters packed with tools and assets to help you appreciate and thank your volunteers. The toolkit is designed for partners, regional planners, event and tournament directors, and volunteer coordinators. Please feel free to share access to the toolkit with your key volunteers who plan events and manage other volunteers. To access this content, follow this link and enter the code: D2203695. If you do not have an existing Thinkscape account you will be prompted to create one. Please do not share the toolkit with our general volunteer audience.

The toolkit includes a wide variety of digital, downloadable assets, such as certificates of appreciation, thank you notes, customizable flyer templates, graphics and artwork, digital badges, social media graphics, and more.

Engaging Volunteers Online

Investing time in volunteer engagement helps create community, improve the volunteer experience, and retain volunteers. Ideas for volunteer engagement include:

- Highlight volunteer stories on your website or social media
- Share stories about volunteers and teams in the news
- Encourage volunteers to share their stories
- Share user-generated content
- Encourage volunteers to tag you on social media when sharing their stories so you can share it back with your larger audience
- Give volunteers opportunities to provide feedback, either at events or through surveys
- Consider creating a local newsletter to educate people about FIRST, share local updates, and inform volunteers of upcoming events and volunteer opportunities
- Share the link to subscribe to the FIRST Volunteer Newsletter with your volunteers:

Recognizing Volunteers

Thanking and recognizing all FIRST volunteers is an important component of volunteer retention. Showing appreciation for volunteers can happen year-round and doesn't have to be limited to events. Some ideas for thanking and recognizing volunteers include:

- Post pictures on your website and social media platforms and give a shout-out to volunteers
 - You can recognize special key volunteers, volunteer award recipients, or just give a general shout-out and thanks to all the volunteers who make FIRST events and programs possible
- Thank You Notes
 - Send end-of-season thank you notes or emails
 - Print thank you notes for teams to write words of thanks for event volunteers or mentors and coaches at events
 - Create a Volunteer Gratitude Board where teams, parents, and other attendees can thank volunteers
- Recognize volunteers during events over the audio system, through signage, and at opening and closing ceremonies in front of an audience
- Hand out FIRST Year of Service pins or other volunteer gifts during event breaks or at lunch
- Use program books to highlight the name, title, and company of volunteer judges
- See the Volunteer Experience Toolkit for downloadable thank you notes and other resources for recognizing and thanking volunteers

Ordering Recognition Items

The following recognition items can be ordered at no cost to you (shipping included) from the Volunteer Recognition Portal via Staples. This portal requires the creation of an account and order approval from the Volunteer Resources team. For quicker approval, use your FIRST email when making your Portal account.

- FIRST* Volunteer Passports
 - Volunteer Passports can be given out to volunteers to commemorate their efforts and to create a piece of memorabilia from their time spent volunteering with FIRST. Event coordinators can design stamps or stickers for each event. Volunteers bring their passports when they volunteer at events to collect the stamps or stickers. Passport holders and lanyards can be ordered to accompany the passport. For help with designing stamps or stickers for your events, please see the Volunteer Experience Toolkit for artwork, graphics, and templates.

 - Stickers
 - Stickers can be ordered for every volunteer and used for volunteer engagement and recognition. Feel free to order extra stickers for outreach and recruitment events.
