VOLUNTEER TODAY

As a FIRST® alum, you know the proven impact of our programs. When you give back as a FIRST volunteer, you empower the next generation of future change makers. Opportunities to volunteer range from a few hours to a whole season and can involve contributing in technical or nontechnical ways. Positions vary depending on the program and can support teams or events. Build up the next generation of innovators by volunteering with FIRST today.

STAY INVOLVED

As a FIRST alum, you are part of the FIRST community for life.
Here's how you can stay connected and keep the inspiration flowing.

FIND YOUR LOCAL ALUMNI GROUP

One of the most fun and organized ways FIRST Alumni come together are via structured alumni groups. Regional Groups are generally affiliated with an identified FIRST territory or region and are often led or supported by the local FIRST organization. Collegiate Groups are usually a grassroots effort led by a FIRST alum to create a chapter at their respective school and bring together other FIRST alumni on campus.

CONNECT WITH LOCAL LEADERSHIP

FIRST helps young people build a better future where they want to belong. The FIRST community empowers students to be good global citizens who understand that they can use their collective skills to make a positive impact in one person's life, in their community, and even the world. Find out how you can help today by reaching out to your local leadership.
